February Check-in

Happy February! The groundhog didn't see his shadow this year, which means early spring is coming. If you believe in the Groundhog Day legend that is. This winter season has been very wet, but the National Oceanic And Atmospheric Administration (NOAA) is predicting that Florida will experience more above average rainfall through the spring months. What does this mean for Malabar residents? For those who live on dirt/gravel roads, it might take a few days after a rain for Public Works to come maintain and grade the roads. Rain can make the ground too wet to grade and any fill that is put down will get washed away. Usually after a heavy rain Public Works will wait for the roads to dry out, and that will cause some delay in road maintenance. We thank our residents for having patience, because this season has been wetter than normal and it is still not over yet.
